

Come & See: Servant Leadership in Action

Mondays 12:00-1:30pm starting September 11th
at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in downtown Greensboro

Facilitated by: Rev. Frank Dew & Kristen Leigh Southworth, M.Div.

Are you wondering “what’s next”? Are you concerned about the issues facing our community and our world? Do you want to get involved and make a difference, but aren’t really sure where to start? Would you like to explore your own emerging sense of call with like-minded people who are asking similar questions?

Join us for a free, 9-week lunchtime discussion group and hear from experienced “servant leaders” who are making a difference right here in Greensboro. Register for the entire class, or drop in on the sessions that most interest you. Pack a lunch, bring a friend, be inspired!

- Week 1: Call & “Outward” Spiritual Journey (Sept 11)
- Week 2: Immigration & The Sanctuary Movement (Sept 18)
- Week 3: Racial Reconciliation & Criminal Justice Reform (Sept 25)
- Week 4: Poverty & Education (Oct 2)
- Week 5: Housing & Homelessness (Oct 9)
- Week 6: Food Justice & Hunger (Oct 16)
- Week 7: Affordable Healthcare (Oct 23)
- Week 8: Climate Change & Environmental Sustainability (Oct 30)
- Week 9: Discernment & Next Steps (Nov 6)

Beth McKee Huger, Greensboro Housing Coalition

Yvonne Johnson, Greensboro Mayor Pro Tem

Ruth Anderson, Partnership Village Tutors

Dr. Beth Mulberry, Mustard Seed Clinic

Out of the Garden Project

Rev. Julie Peoples & FaithAction International House